"The Inspiration of Scripture is Profitable for the OT, the NT, and Biblical Counseling"

As satanic attack on the Word of God continues, having started in the Garden of Eden and continues today, three Bible Baptist Theological Seminary men will counter this diabolical assault with the Bible Baptist Theological Seminary Fall Lecture Series, under the aegis of Bible Baptist Church. Dr. Chet Kulus will defend biblically the Hebrew Masoretic Text behind the KJV with examples of the promise of divine preservation of the Old Testament in spite of the efforts by critics to use the qere' (spoken) words inserted in the Hebrew text instead of the kethiv (written) words of God. The critics of the OT have employed the faulty Greek translation of the LXX (Septuagint) to "correct" the Hebrew, as well as the Gnostic Dead Sea Scrolls. Dr. Kulus will show the powerful biblical arguments for refuting the heresy of Textual Criticism on the OT Scriptures.

Dr. Thomas Strouse will show the contrast between the Received Bible Movement and the Restored Bible Rubbish. The Received Bible Movement looks to the Bible for its biblical prediction and to believers' history for its fulfillment. He will give twelve biblical principles which find their fulfillment in the Received Texts of the Old Testament (OT) and New Testament (NT), and in accurate (but not "inspired") translations built upon these Received Texts (Hebrew Masoretic and Greek Received Texts), such as the OT and NT of the 1611 KJV. He will conclude with the insurmountable arguments for the Receive Bible Movement and against the Restored Bible Rubbish. If the Lord Jesus Christ has not inspired and preserved the perfect heavenly Words of God as He promised for men to receive by faith, and which are manifested in the Hebrew Masoretic Text and the Greek Received Text, then man does not have the Scriptures for which to live by and about which to give an account at the judgment. Certainly, puny man with unbelievable audacity cannot restore and reconstruct the texts of Scripture that Jehovah purposefully decided not to preserve, and in fact did not preserve! Either we have the perfectly inspired and preserved words in the original languages, as promised by the Saviour, or in their accurate translations, or we do not! Who do we trust: The Redeemer God of the Bible and His promises, or the Textual Critics and their feckless and humanistic wrested surmisings?

Finally, Dr. Ryan Strouse will conclude with the "so what" of having the perfect Scriptures available if churches, pastors, and church members do not utilize this heavenly treasure of help and hope for fallen mankind. Pastoral counseling must use the perfectly preserved Scriptures and the Authorized Version to deal with heart issues. Jeremiah averred, saying, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?" (Jer. 17:9). Only the LORD through His divine revelation can change the heart of sinner or saint!

The Bible Baptist Theological Seminary biannual Lecture Series ministry of Bible Baptist Church is for the purpose of encouraging and challenging the Lord's assemblies with biblical truths. A luncheon will be provided. Please RSVP as soon as possible for the necessary headcount for seating and feeding: drtms_bbts@juno.com

BIBLE CONFERENCE

Dr. Thomas Strouse has the privilege to teach through the Book of Habakkuk at the sister church Willow Grove Baptist Church in Waynesburg, PA. Dr. Scott Blair is the pastor, and Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Strouse are looking forward to ministry and fellowship with Pastor Blair and his wife Kelly (Oct. 18-21).

The message of the Prophet Habakkuk was about 609-606 BC as Babylon was a threat to Judah. Isaiah had already predicted the rise and fall of Assyria (Isa. 36-39), and also the coming threat of Babylon (Isa. 43:14 ff.). Now, the Babylonians were on the march, crushing Assyria and Egypt. As Habakkuk watched nations fall to the growing threat of Babylon, he also recognized Judah was ripe for judgment because of internal apostasy. The subject of Theodicy, or the justice of God, was upon the mind and heart of Habakkuk. In the dialogue of the prophet with the LORD, he pondered the lack of justice and judgment upon his own people, and then ponders the justice of God using the terrible Babylonians as Jehovah's rod of judgment. Asking "why," the only answer which came from the LORD was "the just shall live by his faith" (Hab. 2:4). When the saint says "why," the LORD says "trust Me."
